Today's money and exchange mar-kets were nominal. The fact that the next atailable steamship for shipping gold to Paris does not sail until next Thursday defers the question of furexports.

which was carrying prices upward throughout the list.

Various factors have intervened which might serve as an explanation of this check, but the seiling seems to have been due entirely to a desire to take speculative profits.

Commitments on the long side had been considerable as a result of a long continued rise and the process of profit-taking has necessitated a considerable absorption.

In some stocks the selling out of the effective leaders in the operations for the advance has been rather obvious. In others appearances have suggested that the principal operators for the advance have helped the reaction with a view to shaking out weak and cumbersome followers with a view to facilitate other advances and take on fresh holdings of stock at the decline.

Last Saturday's bank statement was a predisposing cause for the taking of profits at the opening of the week. The large loan expansion was a warn- 300 ing that the prevailing speculation was making large inroads upon available credits, while the feeling in the financial community is that bank reserves should be conserved at this time in preparation for coming large demands for interior requirements.

The large exports of gold announced for Tuesday, followed by additional shipments for Thursday, emphasized this impression.

indicated that further out-go was within the probabilities.

Under ordinary circumstances a relaxation of foreign money markets might be looked for after the monthend requirements are met; but at the present time the London market is confronted with a payment of a 20 percent installment on the $160,000,000 consol issue, while in Paris the Bank of France is making preparations for the rentes conversion plan, which will necessitate a temporary tie-up of a large sum of money to enable the government to stand ready to redeem any such sum of money to enable the government to stand ready to redeem any such portion of issues as holders elect to exchange.

The present large indebtedness of the New York money market to foreign markets is now well understood, and the government financial measures referred to are believed to explain the indisposition of foreign creditors to extend loans here, notwithstanding the advantage offered by higher interest rates. The latter part of the month has also altered the expectations of relief to the local money market by a continuing government deficit.

An unexpected development during the week was the reported absorption by the St. Louis & San Francisco of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois, thus insuring an entrance into Chicago for that system.

The recent large absorption of St. Louis & San Francisco was supposed to foreshadow its incorporation into the Rock Island system, and its strength has helped the advance in Rock Island on account of readjustment of its captial. The statement was made on declining averages for cash, as above indicated, and the banks are probably somewhat shorter in this respect than appears by the returns. The circulation was increased $186,400, or a little less than in the previous week, when the amount was $188,600. The daily average of bank clearings during the week was $246,000,000, a falling off of $1,000,000 compared with the previous strong.

These are only a few of the great cures he has made. By calling at his office you can see thousands of other testi-monials to cures made by him during the past thirty years.

A Medical Triumph.—Dr. C. W. Higgins recently extracted a worm from a patient which in some respects is the most wonderful paenomenon known to the medical profession. It is of an entirely different species from any heretofore discovered. It has a head like a snake with black spots on the side. Any person desirous of secing the wonderful specimen can see it by calling at Dr. Higgins's office.

Burlington, Iowa.

Dr. Higgins, Dear Sir.—Duty prompts me to a most grateful acknowledgment of the astonishing success of your treatment in my case. I had already traveled far, and expended so much in vain effort to secure a cure, that it was with great reluctance and little hope that I called on you. Your correct diagnosis in my case inspired me with new hope, and I was confident that you were master of what few chronic diseases you profess to cure. When I came to you some four weeks ago, I could hardly get up the stairs to your room. Shortly after I commenced to use your remedies I felt the disease beginning to give way, and I have been improving ever since, and have gained fifteen pounds; my neighbors have often speken of the improvement in my looks, and I know I have not felt as well for two years as I do now. Your remedies have proved in my case wonderful, and they wrought for me the biessing and joyous feeling of health, vigor, life and freedom; the power to work and enjoy myself. Doctor, I thank you for your past kindness, and for the cure of a disease that other dectors called consumption. I am with respect.

I think more of you than any other man living, as a gentle-man and a doctor.

I remain your friend ever, God bless you. MRS. M. FLYNN. A Wonderful Cure.—Dr. C. W. Higgins is gaining a wide reputation for his skill as an oculist. Among his most recent cures is that of an infant daughter of Mr. J. De Spain, living at Deep Creek, Utah. The child is six yeers old, and during the last three years she has suffered greatly with her eyes. Fearing total blindness, the father, about a month ago, placed the child under the care of Dr. Higgins, and his skillful treatment has restored soundness to her sight. A little weakness is apparent, a bright light produces pain, but all inflammation and signs of disease have been removed, and in another week or two the doctor expects to have the child's vision restored to perfect strength. This is a very gratifying cure, and speaks highly for the attention and skill of the doctor.

Dr. C. W, Higgins, Dear Sir:—I feel and highly for the attention and skill of the doctor.

Dr. C. W. Higgins, Dear Sir:—I feel and know now that I am gaining rapidly all the time, and I know not how to express my gratitude to you for relieving me of pain and misery. All doubt of you as a successful doctor, with me, disappeared with the neuralsia and catarrh in my head. Before I called on you I had been under the care of several other good doctors, but I got no relief whatever, until I took your medicines. I have suffered several years with my diseases, but did not know what alled me until you told me. I feel thankful for the cure that your medicines have given me, and willingly recommend you to all others that suffer with any chronic disease. I am your friend forever, MRS. M. B. I was so impressed with your new and simple theory of diseases that I determined to call and see you at once. Thank God I did, words cannot express my gratitude and joy, and I wish to make it known, as I deem it a duty to all afflicted with this awful malady to do all in my power to make known to manhood a true physician as one that cures.
